

ST MARY MAGDALENE

WITH ST PAUL IN THE BAIL AND ST MICHAEL ON THE MOUNT, LINCOLN

Notices for Sunday, 3rd May 2020 – The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Thank you for joining us and for sharing in this time of worship today.

Our Bible readings today are: Acts 2.42–end; 1 Peter 2.19–end; and John 10.1–10
If you don't have a Bible to hand at home, you might like to use this: <http://bible.oremus.org/>

If you know someone who might like to join us next week, please ask them to get in touch (via connectingwithstmarys@gmail.com or 0777 358 1065 – these contact details may also be passed on if you know of somebody who might appreciate a phone call or other support).

'Stopping for 60 seconds'

'Stopping for 60 seconds' is the title of a new series of 60-second films that are aimed at helping us all to stop, reflect and give thanks. More details are available online at <https://bit.ly/3bLPMgt>

We continue to offer worship online at other times – in addition to our service on Zoom, we livestream an act of worship on Facebook at 11am each Sunday, plus we have Evening Prayer each weekday at 5.15pm. To take a look, please visit <https://www.facebook.com/stmaryms/>

'A Virtual Coffee Morning'

This week we are going to try something 'a bit different'. We invite you to join us for a 'virtual coffee morning' at 11am on Wednesday, 6th May. This will be via Zoom, and it will offer us a chance to catch up and share in conversation in the middle of the week. Please contact us for the log-in information and we'll be happy to pass this on.

'Daily Hope'

We are very conscious that not everybody has access to the internet. Please could you help us to share the news that the Church of England is now offering a free national phone line service? It is said that 'Daily Hope' offers music, prayers, reflections and full worship services. The number is 0800 804 8044, and callers hear a message of greeting from the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Serving and helping others

Jane Harris has asked us to mention that face masks are being produced and are available by request in return for a voluntary contribution, which will then be passed on to the foodbank. Please contact us (via the contact details above) if you would like to order a face mask(s).

In addition, we are aware that a large quantity of used matches is available to a good home. Perhaps these might be of use to somebody who enjoys making models out of matchsticks? Again, please contact us if this is of interest.

Thank you for being with us today.
